NOTICE OF ROADWORKS

Please be advised that reconstruction roadworks have commenced in various locations in the Shire. All of the roadworks are full reconstruction works which includes a rebuild of the running surface and base course. This should be completed by late April 2016.

The following locations are as follows:

- Bencubbin-Kellerberrin Road between the Koorda turnoff and the Bencubbin Caravan Park;
- Koorda-Bullfinch Road, approx. 5kms east of the Welbungin town site; and
- Bencubbin-Kellerberrin Road for a 1.5km section north of the Shire of Trayning boundary.

Traffic management will be in place and please adhere to signage and instructions from traffic controllers.

The 2015/2016 resealing program will be undertaken by Boral Asphalt over approximately 2 weeks in mid to late March. They will be resealing 19kms of the Burakin-Wialki Road as well as Monger and Rupe Streets in Bencubbin

SUCCESSFUL NIGHT SWIM

There was a great turn out at the Annual Night Swim on Friday night. This helped the students at Bencubbin Primary School raise over $500 towards their school camp by way of selling delicious burgers and drinks. Thanks to all who attended and made it a successful evening.

DOCTOR SERVICES

The Kununoppin Medical Practice Committee (consisting of the Shires of Mt Marshall, Trayning, Mukinbudin and Nungarin) regrets to advise that Dr Jesudas has recently resigned and will be leaving Kununoppin Hospital and Medical Practice on 31 March 2016.

Please be assured that the committee has been and is continuing to work hard to ensure medical services will continue to be provided throughout these Shires with minimal disruption to ordinary medical and doctor services for the community both short and long term following Dr Jesudas's departure.
