CONGRATULATIONS!

A big congratulations to the committee of the Mt Marshall & Districts Agricultural Society for putting together a most successful show over the weekend. The crowds were impressive and the efforts that had been put in leading up to the day were very evident from the array of displays and competitions held. Well done to all and we look forward to next year's show.

IS IT YOU?

The Shire has received some payments of rates into our bank account. This is most appreciated and we thank the conscientious ratepayer. However, some transactions have appeared with a reference simply stating 'Rates' causing some issues for our accounts team who wish to credit these monies to the correct rates assessment. Without a name or assessment number used as a reference, allocating these funds to the correct rates account is near impossible.

To ensure we credit these monies to the correct ratepayer we are asking anyone who has made a rates payment into our bank account using the reference of 'Rates' to contact Finance and Admin Manager, Ms Tanika McLennan. You will need to provide some verifying information before we can credit your rates account, including amounts, dates and the banking institution you transferred the funds from.
