MEDIA RELEASE

Appointment of Chief Executive Officer

The Shire of Mt Marshall wishes to advise that Council, at our August 2022 Ordinary Meeting, have appointed Mr Ben McKay to the position of Chief Executive Officer following a thorough recruitment process.

Mr McKay is an experienced executive having served in a number of senior local government roles in WA and in Victoria.

President Anthony Sachse, the Chair of Council's CEO Selection Panel, thanked the panel members for their considerable efforts and confirmed he is pleased with the appointment and is looking forward to working closely with Mr McKay.

"Mr Ben McKay presented at a very high level during all stages of the recruitment process. The Shire of Mt Marshall is very happy to be able to make this announcement and are confident that Ben will lead the Shire well and will enable the excellent service and standards that our staff currently deliver to continue. We welcome Ben and his family to Mt Marshall and believe that their time here will be rewarding and enjoyable".

Mr McKay will commence on Tuesday December 13th 2022, when the current Chief Executive Officer, Mr John Nuttall will finish after almost six years in the role.

Cr Sachse expressed his thanks to Mr Nuttall for his efforts over the time he has been in the role and wished him every success in the future.

"I have enjoyed working with John and I cannot speak highly enough for his distinction, commitment, and integrity during his time as CEO at the Shire of Mt Marshall. He is highly regarded for his contribution on both our internal and external committees. Indeed, he has helped guide all the Councillors' and myself in a constructive way in our duties as elected members. We thank John for his time with us and wish him all the very best".
