Marsue Transport Bencubbin 400

The weather over the WA Day long weekend provided incredible conditions for drivers, support crews, spectators and volunteers for the 9th annual Western Australian Off Road Racing Championships held in Bencubbin. The 2018 Marsue Transport Bencubbin 400 Off Road Race provided drivers and navigators with a unique and diverse track through local farm land. Spectators were treated to some impressive off road racing action at the designated spectator points. The track, slightly longer than in previous years did not disappoint entrants with its diversity. With 51 registered entrants, 25 finished the event.

Outright Placings were;

1. Harleigh Uren Extreme-2WD
2. Shane and Curt Elphinstone -Pro Buggy
3. Jared Purcival and Darren Beckett-Prolite

An event of this size and nature requires many hands for such success. A huge thank you to our local land holders who gave permission for sections of their properties to be used because without your land we don't have the incredible track and this unique event in our Shire. Thank you Peter Sachse & Family, Nick Gillett & Family, Bob Kett & Family, Kevin Kett & Family, Steve Kett & Family, Johnson Jeffries & Family, Terry Gobbart & Family, Nathan Brooks & Family and Peter Walker & Family.

To our community groups that catered over the weekend, Bencubbin Lions Club, Bencubbin Ladies Hockey Club, Leanne Gobbart and Tracey Tranter, Bencubbin Community Rec Council and the Bencubbin Bowling Club and to our local volunteer Off Road Racing Working Group, thank you!

We look forward to a strong and continued partnership with the Western Australian Off Road Racing Association and the 10th Annual Off Road Racing Championship hosted by the Shire of Mt Marshall in 2019.
