— THE SANDALWOOD SHIRE —

William Gracie (Hund / Hunda)

28.7.1952 - 27.4.2019

Hund was a long and loyal employee of the Shire, serving for 25 years as both Trades Assistant and later the Plant Maintenance Officer. Always willing to lend a hand he would arrive at haste in his trusty Shire utility when called upon to ensure the fleet of Shire vehicles and any motorised equipment was in working order. His sense of humour was enjoyed by the administration staff when he would pop in the office most days and sometimes his sweet tooth would strike it lucky if there happened to be morning tea being served up.

Our ever reliable, almost predictable former employee retired in October of 2017 and has been missed ever since. After his departure his gopher was still a regular visitor to the Shire office and if he didn't have time to pop in he would still wave while zooming past, his lovable character ever present. On the passing of Hund last week, we at the Shire would like to pass on our deepest condolences to Aggie, Kaye, Troy and family. Friendships extended past his time as a colleague and our memories of him are fond. RIP Hund.
